WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(P)—President Roosevelt has notified the Bey of Tunis that the American armed forces in North Africa hope to pass through French Tunisia, apparently to strike eastward toward the Axis forces now retreating from Egypt.

The White House disclosed today that the message had been delivered Saturday night to the Bey, Sidi Moncef Pacha, and that it asserted at one point: "The indomitable and massive American armed forces which I am dispatching to North Africa in collaboration with the forces of France, will cooperate with you in the defense of your country. They have no other aim than the early destruction of our common enemies."

"They and their Allies hope for the great privilege of passage through Tunisia thus enabling them to accomplish their mission—the elimination of the forces of evil from North Africa."

Tunisia is a French protectorate lying between Algiers, which American troops already have entered, and Italian-controlled Libya. The Bey is the nominal governor of Tunisia.

The message to him was transmitted through Admiral Jean Pierre Esteva, French resident general at Tunis.

While the chief executive's message was couched in friendly, polite terms, it could be regarded as a sort of ultimatum to let United States forces go through Tunisia.

There was no explanation of the President's reference to collaboration with the forces of France, although this government had appealed to the French to cooperate with the American troops toward the ultimate goal of freeing the French colonies from the threat of the Axis.

Mr. Roosevelt told the Bey that his expressed aspirations for the welfare of his people, "permit no doubt of the speedy and favorable outcome of our joint measures of defense."

The President said he had not

YANKS TIGHTEN HOLD ON AFRICA

Meandering Along the Main Stem
By WASH FAYETTE

My attention was attracted to the exciting yelping of a pup on Court Street, and nearing the scene from whence the yelps were coming, I saw a white dog attached to a leash in the hands of a boy, barking furiously.

I wondered what it was all about, but soon discovered the dog saw its reflection in the black glass base slabs in front of some of the buildings, and decided that it was another dog.

Not until the boy led the dog away did it cease its yelping at its own reflection.

A great many persons had their attention attracted Saturday, by a lone accordion player, who walked slowly up the sidewalk, cooing mournful folk-tunes, the notes of old-time hymns, and such airs as "Darling Nellie Gray" and favorite popular airs from the instrument.

It was the first "a-cor-deen" player that had struck the city in many a day, and as result of his wailing tones he collected a great many small coins in the tin-cup suspended about his neck.

I'll venture the assertion that for his day's playing he was much better paid than the average really good musicians are paid for their work.

That just reminds me that in no other profession do people contribute so much of their time, talent and effort to giving pleasure to others, as in the musical profession. I guess it's all because their souls are so filled with melody that they wish to impart some of it to those who enjoy and appreciate the beautiful.

NAZI REMNANTS DASH INTO LIBYA OVER 'HELLFIRE'

British in Close Pursuit as Allied Air Assault All But Wipes Army Out

Cairo, Nov. 9.—(P)—Remnants of Marshal Rommel's fleeing African corps shook loose from the advancing British Eighth Army and plunged across the Egyptian border into Libya in the vicinity of Halfaya (Hellfire) pass despite a heavy American and British air bombardment which made that route nearly impassable.

British advance forces which had been making a desperate effort to catch the back-peddaling enemy plunged into Libya only a few hours behind the rear Axis troops.

The situation in Halfaya Pass at the moment was described as "confusing".

The British were in close pursuit of the tattered Germans and Italians, and British and American pilots were keeping up their relentless pounding of the enemy.

While fighter formations ranged ahead, knocking Axis vehicles into flaming destruction, other fighters hovered over the advance elements closest to the Axis rear to provide protection against Axis air attack.

The Germans and Italians, however, still made no attempt to attack the Allies from the air.

Far behind, a small body of Axis troops which halted to make a stand near Matruh was pummeled into surrender by an Allied armored force which dropped out of the chase long enough to do this task.

Paris Seethes As Fighting Breaks Out

LONDON, Nov. 9.—(P)—Reuters recorded a Paris radio announcement today that clashes had broken out between demonstrators and police in the German-occupied French capital.

The demonstrations, described as "a few small incidents," followed a meeting of the French people's party at which collaborationist Jacques Doriot demanded "an immediate declaration of war on Britain and America, and immediate conclusion of an alliance with the Axis powers."

The procession began to march to the tomb of the unknown soldier, according to the version of the Nazi-controlled Paris radio, shouting "fight the British" and "down with the British murderers." Then it said, police "attempted to break up the procession."

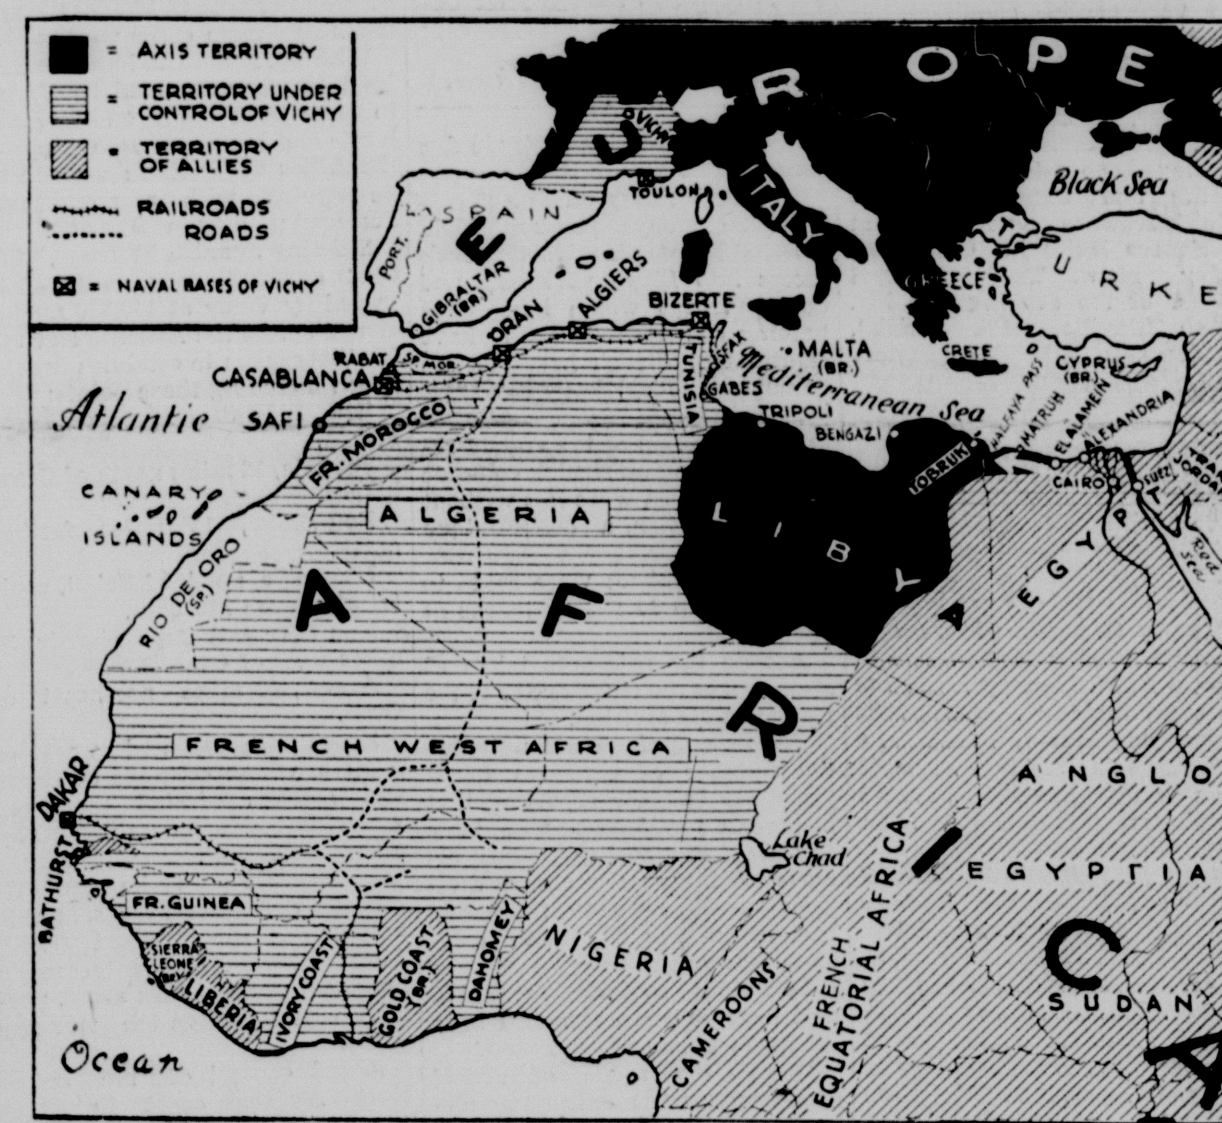

NAZI INDUSTRY BLASTED AGAIN BY U. S. BOMBERS

Meanwhile RAF Smashes Italy—Damage Heavy At All Objectives

LONDON, Nov. 9.—(P)—American flying fortresses dealt another hard blow to German's war machine in occupied France yesterday, one formation blasting the important locomotive works at Lille and another scattering its bombs over the German Air-drome at Abbeyville.

The bombers again shot their way through swarms of German fighters with the help of an Allied fighter screen and destroyed a number of the enemy, a joint communiqué of the British Air Ministry and U. S. Air Force headquarters said. One fortress and six of the Allied fighters failed to return.

The Americans went into action a few hours after RAF

Principal points where American troops have landed and are attacking in French North Africa are shown on the above map. Tens of thousands of American soldiers, supported by naval and air forces, have established beachheads and advanced inland at numerous points along the Atlantic and Mediterranean coasts. Vichy French naval bases, including Toulon, France, where the main French fleet is reported to be, are indicated.

REMNANTS OF AXIS DESERT ARMY ON RUN TO ESCAPE

Italians, Whose Troops Were Sacrificed by Rommel in Egypt, See Handwriting and Are Weakening as Allied Forces Rush Toward Domination of Mediterranean And Possible Invasion of Europe

By JAMES M. LONG
(By The Associated Press)

United States troops took over Algiers today and cut coastwise rail and road communications at perhaps ten landing places along a 1,000 mile coast of French North and West Africa in swift establishment of a second front labeled "Made in U. S. A." and aimed across the contested Mediterranean at Hitler's Europe.

On the east, the hard-driving British Eighth Army had won back Egypt and chased the tattered remnant of Field Marshall Rommel's armored force back into Libya, where every mile of retreat brought him closer to the eventual striking range of the Americans.

Vichy broadcasts reported new American landings on the Atlantic coast of Morocco, said French naval forces suffered severe losses in a naval battle outside the port of Casablanca, declared that Casablanca itself had been bombed heavily, and described the naval base at Oran on the Mediterranean coast of Algeria as virtually encircled.

French Fleet Not in Battle Against Allies

Algiers capitulated. Admiral Jean Darlan, anti-British commander of all Vichy armed forces, authorized the surrender of the colonial capital last night. British and American naval forces entered the harbor this morning.

The Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack flew over the harbor front, and Lieut. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's fighting men streamed ashore along with fliers of the RAF. American fighter planes already were poised on the captured airdromes around the city alert for Axis air attacks from across the Mediterranean.

Darlan, himself, may have been captured along with the city he surrendered. His fate was not disclosed immediately.

Elsewhere along the Algerian and Moroccan coasts on the Mediterranean and Atlantic, United States forces were reported moving steadily inland toward their objectives.

Resistance, ordered by pathetic old Marshal Petain who professed "bewilderment and sadness" at the attack, seemed confined mostly to French naval and coast guard forces. Inland the French and native populations were greeting the Americans as friends.

"A violent naval battle has taken place off Casablanca," a Vichy communique declared. "The port was heavily shelled. Our naval losses were serious."

Algiers Surrendered as Yanks Stream Ashore

Both Axis enemies were said to have entered the defense of North Africa with air action against the Allied fleets off Algiers, but the headquarters spokesman declared that was no truth to reports that the French fleet had steamed from Toulon to enter the battle.

A German communique said that German and Italian planes had scored bomb hits on six Allied warships and four merchantmen in attacks since Friday night against British and American vessels off Algiers.

The Vichy radio reported that Italian planes had attacked Gibraltar today but gave no account of the results.

Broken by the attack was the 150-year record of friendly French-American diplomatic relations. Pierre Laval's pro-German collaborationist government notified the United States yesterday that diplomatic relations were severed.

Washington received the word with evident indifference.

Rome began to see its fate. An Italian radio commentator said "the horizon is black for Italy—we must expect attacks from any quarter."

Even Adolf Hitler seemed at last to be discerning the writing on the wall when he declared last night in his Munich beer hall address that he would not "go abroad if things go wrong," as the Kaiser did, but would face it out to the bitter end. He tacitly conceded the Allies the initiative but

AXIS EFFECTS SCORN FAR SECOND FRONT

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—(P)—Axis broadcasts today rejected President Roosevelt's explanation that the American expedition to North Africa was to forestall Hitler and painted the action as another evidence of Anglo-American "imperialism."

The Nazi-inspired Paris press was quoted by the Berlin radio as expressing "profound indignation."

The Petit Parisien writes that Roosevelt's soldiers who constituted the militia of Jewry and the Anglo-Saxon world hoped to conquer the French African empire and thereby oust France from her position in Europe and the world, "said the Berlin broadcast."

Other Paris papers were quoted as declaring that the United States and Britain hoped to gain "valuable pawns" for use in eventual negotiations.

RED STALL NAZI DRIVE ON ALL RUSSIAN FRONTS

MOSCOW, Nov. 9.—(P)—German forces, stalled in their drive toward the Georgian military highway over the Caucasian mountains, attempted to resume their march near Nalchik yesterday, but Russian tank crews smashed up every attack, the Soviet mid-day communique said today.

A battalion of German infantry was wiped out in three days of fighting in one sector of the Nalchik region, the communique said, and earlier it had been reported 1,700 Nazi soldiers had paid with their lives in this Caucasian region, now gripped by cold, wintry weather.

The fighting in the Stalingrad area was on a small scale and northwest of the city the action was confined largely to artillery duels, it was reported.

In the region of Bryansk, the Russians said, a Soviet air unit made a surprise raid on an enemy airdrome and destroyed 20 German planes.

An earlier communique reported the Red army was perfecting its fortified positions in and around the city of Stalingrad and inflicting heavy losses whenever the Germans attacked. The Germans also lost heavily in the region northeast of Tuapse, Soviet Black Sea naval station, yesterday, it was said.

Yanks Driving Japs Toward Sea In Jungle Fighting on Solomons

(By The Associated Press)

Japan's last hold on the teeming green jungles of southeastern New Guinea—stepping stone to Australia—was shaken today by American soldiers who hacked their way into striking distance of the invaders' base at Buna after probably the greatest airborne infantry movement in history had caught the Japanese flat-footed.

On Guadalcanal, too, indomitable American fighting men were on the advance, rolling the Japanese back to the East of Henderson Airfield in a thrust that carried four miles and may have cut off one Japanese landing force.

The green-clad, jungle-trained American doughboys who moved yesterday to grips with the Japanese near Buna were ferried along with Australian troops by airplane from Australia to a natural landing strip in Japanese territory. Supplies and even jeeps were flown to the field, discovered by chance by an Allied aviator who landed there after having engine trouble.

The whole operation was carried out under the nose of the Japanese army which gave no evidence of knowing what was going on. One informant told an Associated Press correspondent in New Guinea.

Natives helped hide the stores from sight, and the Australians and Americans pushed along trails seldom used by white men through the last ridges of the position for their attacks.

The Americans struck at the Japanese base on the northeast coast, the Australians at the Japanese advance stronghold at Oivi, 50 miles inland from Buna.

Allied bombers and fighters supporting the attack, raiding Oivi, Salamaua and Buna, and carrying their attacks to Gasmata, New Britain, Makilo Island off the southwest coast of New Britain, and Koepang, in Timor.

A navy communique on operations in the southeast Solomons said motor torpedo boats probably sank one of two Japanese destroyers they attacked north of the American positions on Guadalcanal Saturday morning. An aerial attack that afternoon on an enemy naval formation consisting of a light cruiser and several destroyers resulted in the possible sinking of the cruiser and damage to one destroyer.

Twelve of the Japanese planes which tried to intercept the attack were shot down and four American planes were lost.

THE WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Hitler's Gloom Reflected
In Speech in Munich;
Italians Getting Enough

(This column, conducted as a daily feature by DeWitt Mackenzie, war analyst, is written today by Glenn Babb. Mr. Mackenzie, now touring the war zones, is traveling.)

Adolf Hitler returned last night to the scene of his Munich Beer Hall putsch, the ignominious flop that introduced his nightmarish career to a still unsuspecting world. The occasion was as redolent of failure as the event of 19 years ago it celebrated. The gloom through which the Fuehrer exhorted his old guard was far deeper and soul chilling than that of the November night. It was a Wagnerian gloom, in keeping with the Fuehrer's tastes and prospects.

For Hitler spoke against the background of the first disaster of German arms in this war and the announcement that the Yanks really had come back to finish what was left unfinished in 1918. Rommel, the general who only six short weeks ago was basking in the Hitlerian smile in Berlin, was fleeing into Libya, abandoning his allies in a manner that will go far to destroy what little stomach remains in Italy for the Axis alliance and the war in general.

Nineteen eighteen obviously was preying on the Fuehrer's mind, so much so that the speech, planned to reassure his followers, reached its climax in the pledge that he, Adolf Hitler, would not "go abroad if things go wrong," as the Kaiser did, but would remain to perish in the ghastly shambles he will have made of Germany. Never has the pitch of a Hitler speech been more hysterical, more like the scream of a cornered rat.

Rome chimed in with a somber chord. "The horizon is black for Italy—we must expect attacks from any quarter," said a Fascist radio commentator. The similarity between the status of France and Italy grows daily.

But it would be easy—and dangerous—to draw from the temper of Munich and Rome and from the manifold reports of Allied success the conviction that victory is just around the corner. The continent on which the Americans are landing is Africa, not Europe.

This campaign, after all, is merely one of prevention and preparation.

But the beginning has been made. The United States Marines—with a few hundred thousand and of their American, British and allied comrades—are on the way back to the Tripoli of their battle hymn. But we must not let ourselves forget that the real job lies across the Mediterranean.

bombers had returned from a Saturday night visit to Genoa, Italy, where tons of bombs, including some of the block-pulverizing type, were dropped on the city and harbor.

It was "the heaviest raid of the war" on Genoa, the Air Ministry announced, and the second in two nights. The Italian radio acknowledged that "damage was heavy." Four bombers were lost.

The Flying Fortresses were credited with "good results" in the raid on Lillie.

The fortresses also were busy Saturday, plastering the German submarine base at Brest, France.

The Tunisians, Mr. Roosevelt said, "are victimized by the organized rapacity of the Germans and Italians which has stripped the Tunisian population of the bare necessities of life, reducing it to nakedness and want."

He said he had learned that the Italians and Germans seek to occupy and completely dominate Tunisia and impose on the people "a condition of misery to which, I am sure, they will never submit."

The message was delivered Saturday, but its release was withheld until the delivery could be confirmed.

SUPREME COURT GIVES DECISION IN BITTER CASE

Litigation Carried to High Tribunal from Ohio in Nationwide Scrap

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(P)—The Supreme Court held constitutional today legislation imposing a 49-cent-per-bushel penalty on wheat produced and sold in excess of agricultural adjustment administration quotas. Justice Jackson delivered the opinion on a challenge of the 1941 legislation by a group of Montgomery County (Ohio) farmers. The litigation was considered of far-reaching importance by the Roosevelt administration.

The legislation, passed by congress May 26, 1941, increased the penalty on the excess over AAA quotas from 15 to 49 cents per bushel and prevented the sale or use on the farm of any wheat produced until the penalty had been paid.

This legislation was an amendment to the 1938 agricultural adjustment act which authorized the secretary of agriculture to fix quotas restricting the marketing of basic farm products.

"The penalty provided by the amendment," Justice Jackson said, "can be postponed or avoided only by storing the grain marketing excess according to regulations promulgated by the secretary or by delivering it to him without compensation; and the penalty is incurred and becomes due on threshing."

"Thus the penalty was contingent upon an act which appealed (the wheat farmer) committed not before but after the enactment of the statute, and had he chosen to cut his excess and cure it or feed it as hay, or to reap and feed it with the head and straw together, no penalty would have been demanded. Such a cur of consumption is not uncommon."

"Only when he threshed and thereby made it a part of the bulk of wheat overhanging the market did he become subject to penalty."

AMERICAN SOLDIER IS EXECUTED IN AUSTRALIA

MELBOURNE, Australia, Nov. 9.—(P)—Private Edward J. Leonski of the U. S. Army, former grocery clerk in New York City, was hanged today in an Australian jail for the murder of three Australian women.

She had been strangled, as were the other victims, Mrs. Ivy Violet McLeod, 40, killed on May 3, and Mrs. Pauline Thompson, killed May 9.

NATION'S SPOTLIGHT ON THREE OHIOANS

Republicans Now Look for Presidential Candidate

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(P)—It looks as if three Ohioans will be in the lists for the Republican presidential nomination.

There are two years to go but the names Bricker, Taft and Burton are among the big ones expected to figure prominently in the balloting at the national convention in 1944. The election made this emphatic.

Which will have the better chance depends, like everything else, on the war.

In any event, Republican leaders, confident that successes in last Tuesday's election foretold gaining party strength during the next two years, are going to measure the qualifications and vote-getting ability of these three men of Ohio.

PRESIDENT ON ALERT

Sale of forget-me-nots to aid disabled war veterans in hospitals, resulted in $180 being realized Saturday, and this fund will be distributed by Chapter 89 of the veterans, where it will do the most good.

The sale was conducted on the streets, in places of business and in house-to-house visits by the following group of high school girls:

These girls were volunteer workers, and were roundly commended for their good work.

Tuesday evening at 6:30 they will assemble at Memorial Hall to attend a picture show at the Fayette Theater, as guests of Chapter 89, DAV.

The forget-me-nots sold were made by disabled veterans in hospitals.

The chapter officials are greatly pleased with the results of the sale, which was considerably more than realized from the sale last year.

YANKS TIGHTEN HOLD ON AFRICA WHILE ARMIES FLEE ON DESERT

Axis troops pursued Field Marshal Rommel's retreating Axis forces into Libya yesterday and enemy troops which had been holding out near Matruh have capitulated, British headquarters announced today.

Allied air squadrons continued to blast the line of the enemy retreat, shooting up fleeing columns of trucks which were left without aerial protection, a communiqué said.

Fighter-bombers were said to have shot up 50 enemy trucks in one raid alone.

Among the prisoners taken at Matruh was the commander of the Italian Pavia division.

The communiqué did not give the number of captives taken yesterday (merely reporting that many more prisoners had been collected, but earlier British reports said that six entire divisions—perhaps 80,000 men—had been captured, along with complete equipment.

This would indicate it was said that Rommel's strength had been cut down to some 20,000 men.

Despite the scope of Allied aerial operations only four aircraft were reported lost Saturday and Sunday night. By contrast Axis air losses Saturday were put at "at least" 12 planes.

Italians Sacrificed

The six Italian divisions captured in the southern reaches of the El Alamein line after being abandoned by their German comrades-in-arms were identified as the Trento, Pavia, Bologna, Brescia, Folgore and Trieste divisions.

Also in British hands, these sources said, were 500 of Rommel's anti-tank guns, 300 field guns and 100 anti-aircraft guns.

Four main factors contributed to the defeat of the Axis army—better weapons and more of them, a larger army, a determined commander with an efficient staff and complete air superiority.

It was obvious to all on the scene that the British would be able to smash through the enemy defenses after the second day of fighting when Lieut. Gen. B. L. Montgomery, commander of the Eighth Army, brought out into the open his great armored striking force.

There was only one thing to be feared. If Rommel observed the great weight being thrown against him he might withdraw the majority of his force and frustrate the British commander's plan to destroy it.

Officers and men alike prayed that Rommel would not order a retreat. However, after 24 hours of fighting, General Montgomery revised his strategy.

With his great armored force, he decided to concentrate his entire striking power in one place and break through before the enemy had a chance to withdraw.

This gap became so wide and the enemy artillery so thin as a consequence that Eighth Army armored forces crashed through the ring of Axis artillery, raced into the open and divided Rommel's forces.

As the Allied armored force moved westward it dwindled in size when squadron after squadron dropped out to capture enemy camps just breaking up in preparation for retreat.

The prisoners were surprised and happy to find that they were not going to be shot by the British. Their commanding officers had told them as the battle began, they said, to fight until the death because if they were caught they would face death or worse.

If land opposition is not great, the good communication routes of Algeria should enable the Allied army to move eastward at a speed greater than that of the British Eighth Army in its pursuit of the remnants of Marshal Rommel's American corps westward.

With the American landings—at least 10 were reported by Vichy to have been made on the Atlantic and Mediterranean coasts—the Allies battle line appeared to be forming with a speed undreamed of a few weeks ago.

Skirting Spanish Morocco, the first expeditionary units—estimated by Vichy at 140,000 men—struck across the Atlantic and the Mediterranean to establish beachheads including these points:

Safi, 140 miles south of Casablanca.

Fedhala, 12 miles north of Casablanca.

Bou-Znika, 13 miles farther north.

Menediya, north of Rabat, capital of French Morocco.

Bou Sfer and Cape Signale, 20 miles west of Oran.

Arzew, 38 miles northeast of Oran.

Zones both east and west of Algiers, where columns of flame and smoke, spiraled up from waterfront warehouses shelled by a U. S. destroyer.

Some observers here said this enterprise, synchronized with Lieut. Gen. B. L. Montgomery's knockout of Rommel's army, possibly would shorten the war by years.

Allied control of the entire North African coast line, reopening the Mediterranean for shipping supplies on the short route to Egypt, India and Soviet Russia via Iran, would be the equivalent of a gain of millions of tons of shipping.

Military commentators argued that a big Allied army in the

WILLKIE IN COURT TO SAVE COMMUNIST

Citizenship Fight Taken Up Without Compensation

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(P)—Wendell L. Willkie and Solicitor General Charles Fahy were oratorical opponents before the supreme court today in arguments to determine whether membership in the Communist party constitutes ground for cancellation of United States citizenship obtained by an alien.

Three hours were set aside for debate between the 1940 Republican presidential nominee and the government attorney who has been prominently mentioned for the vacancy on the supreme court.

At issue specifically was whether citizenship obtained in 1927 by William Schneiderman, state secretary of the Communist Mediterranean would hasten Italy's exit from the war and put Germany under a three-cornered squeeze from hostile forces in Britain, Italy or Africa, and Russia.

This prospect evidently was recognized in Rome.

A commentator on the Fascist radio said "the horizon is black for Italy—we must expect attacks from any quarters."

Name Famous U.S. Marine Stands Like That at "WAKE ISLAND" ... Prizes!

Get into fighting trim, movie fans, and take a pot shot at $10.00 (War Stamps for prizes), being offered by the State Theatre and the Record-Herald, marking the arrival on Sunday of "Wake Island." Paramount's film re-enacting the 14 days that will always live in the hearts of Americans.

Study the first of the series of four illustrations which will appear in the Record-Herald on successive days and then fill out the answer to the question asked in the coupon. It's up to you to name a U. S. Marine stand similar to the heroic defense of Wake Island.

Here's a hint on today's problem. The uniforms indicate that the action took place in World War I. The Marines crossed over a narrow footbridge after the enemy had laid down a terrific barrage. The river in the illustration passes through a great part of Belgium and Holland and flows into the Waal channel of the Rhine. The name of the battle is the name of the river. Go over the rules carefully before you answer.

RULES --

- Beginning today and for three additional days, the Record-Herald and the State Theatre, celebrating the arrival of Paramount's dramatic re-enactment, "Wake Island," with Brian Donlevy, Macdonald Carey and Robert Preston, on Sunday, will provide an opportunity for you to win one of War Stamp prizes.
- Contestants are asked to name the famous U. S. Marine stand pictured in each of the four installments. There'll be hints in the accompanying stories.
- When you have answered all four—and not before—paste them up on one side of a large sheet of paper, and mail your entry to the "Wake Island" Contest Editor, Record-Herald, city. All entries should be postmarked not later than Friday. Decision of the judges shall be final.

Monday Matinee

There's another Bob Dove making football headlines in Ohio besides the guy who played end for Notre Dame Saturday. This one plays in the Ashland Ohio, high school backfield and recently made a punt that went 89 yards from the scrimmage line.

Today's Guest Star

Bill Diehl, Norfolk (Va.) Ledger-Dispatch: "Branch Rickey, the new president of Brooklyn, aims to put a little ginger in the Dodgers. I suppose, then, they'll be calling him 'gin rickey'."

Fort Benning, Ga., which could have a whale of a football team if it wanted one, has six instead, playing a round-robin intramural schedule.

Candid Comebacks

After Penn State's football team took that drubbing from West Virginia, tub-thumper Ridge Riley began his weekly letter to the alumni: "Exactly 17 years ago our nitty nitty Lions helped West Virginia dedicate its concrete stadium around Mountaineer field. Last Saturday it fell on them."

Cleveland, once a basketball hotspot, is trying to line up a Great Lakes-Ohio State, Wyoming-Western Reserve court doubleheader for January 2. . . While Ohio State grid fans are getting excited about sophomore Gene Fekete, the folks at Athens, O., merely ask if he's as good as his brother John who does a whale of a job of half-backing for Ohio University.

Millers Win Initial Game At Atlanta

Madison Mills High School today claimed honor of having won its first interscholastic basketball game of the season in Fayette County.

The Millers hung a 31 to 24 defeat on the Atlanta basketballers when they went there to try the lid off the winter sports calendar. A fair-sized crowd gathered in the Atlanta gym for the game but, because of tire conservation, fewer of them were from Madison Mills than there would have been in normal times.

The Atlanta reserves won the evening's curtain raiser by a score of 19 to 16.

Miller fans take particular encouragement from the box score which shows a well balanced team, any member of which is a scoring threat.

OHIO FOOTBALL TITLES MAY BE SET THIS WEEK

Dayton U. Flyers Must Beat
U. C. Bearcats To Stay
At Top of List

By JOHN H. COLBURN

COLUMBUS, Nov. 9—(AP)—Dayton's claim for state-wide collegiate football honors goes on the block Saturday against potent Cincinnati as Ohio Northern gets a chance to become undisputed champion of the Ohio Conference.

With Ohio State's powerful Bucks excluded from consideration, the University of Dayton Flyers ranked today as Ohio's most powerful eleven. The Flyers in winning seven games against a single loss have chalked up 170 points while holding the opposition to 74.

Cincinnati's Bearcats have lost only two games in seven starts while scoring 147 points to their opponents' 83.

Both teams lost to strong Tennessee by nearly identical scores, so the tilt to be waged on Cincinnati's home turf appears to be a toss-up. Tennessee beat Dayton 34 to 6 and Cincinnati 34 to 12. Cincinnati's only other defeat came at the hands of Georgia.

Powerful Ohio Northern holds the conference lead without dispute and can annex the title by beating Heidelberg at Ada Saturday. Should the Polar Bears lose, John Carroll would become conference champion although it has completed its league season.

Northern, with a conference record of four wins and a tie, appears to have an edge over the student princes, who have split even in four contests.

Six of Ohio's 34 football-playing colleges wound up their season last Saturday and 11 more complete their schedules this week. Little Marietta with a two-game schedule finished as Ohio's only unbeaten team. The Pioneers won both games from weak Rio Grande.

Rio Grande, Marietta, Kenyon, Defiance, Hiram and Bluffton have put away their football togs. Those teams playing their final season games Saturday are: Findlay, Mount Union, Muskingum, Otterbein, Capital, Ohio Northern, Heidelberg, Youngstown Kent State, Oberlin and Baldwin Wallace.

This week's football card: Friday—Bowling Green at Findlay (afternoon); Bucknell at Case (night). Saturday—Ohio State-Illinois at Cleveland; Wooster at Oberlin; Heidelberg at Ohio Northern; Mount Union at Capital; Toledo at Youngstown; Dayton at Cincinnati; Lane College at Wilberforce; Ohio Wesleyan at Boston; Washington and Jefferson at Denison; Wright-Patterson at Wittenberg; Kent State at Akron; Xavier at Ohio University; Miami at Western Reserve; Grosse Ile at Baldwin Wallace.

hospital, has been returned to her home there. Miss Kelso is a sister of C. Fred Kelso and a former Sabina resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Snyder spent the day Sunday with relatives in Xenia.

Mrs. Robert Luttrell was taken suddenly ill at her county home Sunday and was taken to McClellan Hospital, Xenia on Monday for observation and treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Damon Grim and family of Wilmington were Tuesday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Haines motored to Columbus Friday and met their daughter, Mrs. Traverse Linkhart, of Ramsey, New Jersey, who will visit with them and Clinton County relatives, the next two weeks.

Mrs. Stanley M. Johnson attended Ohio Conference of the W.S.C.S. at Lima, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Morrow of Jeffersonville are announcing the birth of a 7 1-2 pound daughter at McClellan Hospital, Xenia.

Carl J. Bailey has been promoted to Corporal and is now stationed at Camp Wheeler, Georgia.

BOWLING LOOPS STILL TANGLED IN TIGHT RACES

Industrial League Lead in Deadlock; Women's Circuit
Paced by Treaders

The Warnerites were tumbled off the top perch of the Industrial bowling league last week but the Albers Marketeers came bouncing up to share the lead with the Cleo Cola boys.

The race is so close that only one of the six teams is not in a position from which it would be mathematically possible to rise to the top this week.

In the Ladies League the Hawkenson Treaders at last have the lead all to themselves, but any one of the three teams deadlocked right behind them could oust them within a week.

The Montgomery Ward girls, who were tied at the top with the Retreaders at the start of last week's bowling, dropped down on even terms with Light's Dairymaids and Craig's Air-steppers.

Among the winners, Tulsa (Okla.) University is the high scorer with 330 points in seven games. Idaho University, southern branch, is the only team in the country with its goal line uncrossed.

All-victorious teams whose seasons ended are Dubuque of Iowa, Alma of Michigan, Lawrence of Wisconsin, St. Thomas of Minnesota, Central Michigan and Shurtleff of Illinois.

Blue Lions Lead SCO But Circleville Defeat Needed To Hold Title

The Washington C. H. High School's Blue Lions are still in undisputed first place in the South Central League, but Friday night's game with the Circleville Tigers will tell the tale. That deciding game will make the difference between a three way tie or the league championship.

It was hoped by the Washington C. H. fans that Hillsboro would win the game from the Greenfield Tigers last Friday night and knock them out of the race, but this was asking too much. Hillsboro lost by a 22-0 score.

The Lion-Tiger game this week is the only SCL game left to be played. Greenfield finished its league games Friday night and is now in second place with Circleville third. Wilmington is in fourth place and Hillsboro last.

If the Blue Lions win the game Friday night, it will send Circleville into third place definitely and the other standings will remain as they were. A loss, however, will result in a three way tie.

Following are the League standings:

Bucks After Title Of Big Ten as List Of Injured Grows

COLUMBUS, Nov. 9—(AP)—Ohio State, back in the thick of a three-way battle for first place in the Western Conference title chase, today faced a right half-back problem.

Bob Frye of Crestline and Tom Cleary of Cleveland, two of the Bucks' leading substitutes at that position, were injured in Saturday's 59 to 19 rout of Pittsburgh. Frye has a broken leg, Cleary fractured a small wrist bone.

Leslie Horvath, 160-pounder from Cleveland, plays the right halfback spot regularly, but Coach Paul Brown said, "Horvath takes such a beating and he's not rugged enough to go it at top speed the whole route."

"I don't know what we'll do for right halfbacks next week," Brown said as he and his assistants discussed their plan for beating Illinois in a game to be played in Cleveland Stadium before an anticipated crowd of 65,000 to 75,000.

Ohio, Illinois and Iowa are tied for the conference leadership. While Brown tried to find a solution to the right halfback problem, there was considerable talk he might shift George Slusser from Cleveland, two of the Bucks' leading substitutes at that position, were injured in Saturday's 59 to 19 rout of Pittsburgh. American commercial investments in Japan before the war were approximately $165,000,000.

DO YOU HAVE

RENT INSURANCE ?

Rent insurance is a necessity. If your home were destroyed or damaged you would need funds to pay rent until your property were restored—rent insurance would do this for you. As a property owner, you would also be protected, for in case of damage, you would be sure of your rent income continuing.

Check your fire insurance policy. Do you have this protection? The cost is small. Let Farm Bureau show you how it can work for you.

GRAIN MARKET NEWS SUMMARY

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—(P)—Rye prices were up almost 2c a bushel and corn a cent at one time today but these gains were reduced later when the grain market weakened in sympathy with a decline of almost a cent in wheat quotations.

Action of wheat prices, which were lower most of the session, was attributed to sluggish flour business and trade expectations that any advance of more than 3 or 4 cents would bring into operation the government's program to release loan stocks to millers. Traders said this tended to discourage would-be buyers. Short covering strengthened rye and corn.

Wheat closed 1/4-1/2 cent lower than Saturday, December 1.25% higher, May 1.28% higher; corn 1/4-1/2 cent higher, December 83 3/4-3/8c, May 88 3/4-3/8c; oats unchanged to 1/4c up; rye 1/4-1/2c higher. There was no trade in soybeans but bid and asked quotations at the close were 1/4-1/2c higher on December contracts.

STABILIZATION OF FARM LABOR ENDORSED HERE

Head of County's AAA Sees WMC Program as 'Step In Right Direction'

County AAA chairman, Harry Silcott today hailed as a "step in the right direction" the program stabilizing employment on the nation's dairy, livestock and poultry farms, announced recently by Paul V. McNutt, chairman of the War Manpower Commission.

"Unless the farm war effort is supported by an adequate reservoir of manpower," he pointed out, "it seems extremely doubtful that our farmers could hope to produce food and fiber in quantities sufficiently large to meet the requirements of the United Nations. The action of the War Manpower Commission for that reason, then, is especially welcome."

The WMC program stipulates that the Selective Service System will request local board to classify in Group 1-B those dairy, livestock and poultry farm workers who are deferred on grounds of dependency.

Local draft boards also will be asked to grant occupational deferment to dairy, livestock and poultry farmers and farm hands without grounds for dependency deferment, but who are "necessary men" for whom replacements are not available.

Workers in the latter group would be subject to reclassification and possible induction as soon as they ceased to perform the necessary work for which they had been granted deferment.

Both the Army and Navy have pledged to refrain from recruiting essential dairy, livestock or poultry workers or producers, accepting them for voluntary enlistment, or initiating programs to encourage their enlistment in areas where critical shortages of such workers exist.

An attempt to stem the flow of skilled farm labor to war industries is seen in the WMC announcement that all employers will be instructed to refrain from hiring skilled workers who have been engaged in these three types of farm production.

As its part in the WMC farm labor program, the U. S. Department of Agriculture will act to stabilize wages on dairy, livestock and poultry farms with a view to assisting these farmers in their efforts to secure and to maintain an adequate supply of labor.

The USDA also will take necessary steps to control sale of dairy cows for slaughter to check the trend threatening dairy production.

Other steps to be taken by the USDA include: Assisting dairy, livestock and poultry farmers by helping them build up livestock numbers, training unskilled workers, aiding farm operators in buying or renting more productive farm, providing service for skilled farm operators and laborers and assisting in transporting them to farms where they are most needed.

Fayette County is typographically fortunate in having less obstacles to contend with as compared with some other counties, in being one of the foremost in the state by way of producing grain and livestock in increased quantities, that will be required in 1943, as well as being located at an inconvenient distance from the War Zone area activities.

If the foregoing instructions and plans are carried out efficiently it will tend to stabilize the farm labor situation in this county, and will encourage our farmers to stick to their guns and be able to discharge their full responsibility to the War Effort in this 1943 farm production.

COUNTY ROAD MARKERS WILL BE INSTALLED

County Engineer Soon To Start Much Needed Road Marking

County Engineer Robert E. Willis stated Monday that plans have been completed to start the work of installing markers on all Fayette County roads so that it will be an easy matter for those unfamiliar with the highways to travel them day and night, without difficulty.

For many years there has been a growing demand for adequate marking of the county highways, such as been done in a great many other counties.

At one time a few of the roads were marked, but this was only on a small scale. The markers were not of a durable kind and soon disappeared.

Engineer Willis plans to start the work in the near future and continue it as time and funds permit, until the main County roads are marked throughout their entire length.

It was indicated that the work may eventually be carried out on every road in the county, so that not only will the Federal, State and County roads be marked, but the township roads as well.

In many Ohio counties this work has been carried out on a large scale in recent years.

ARMISTICE DAY CEREMONY HERE BEING EXPANDED

Veterans of Foreign Wars And American Legion Both Plan Programs

Plans for the celebration of Armistice Day here Wednesday, today held prospects of an almost all-day observance with two organizations of veterans of the first World War sharing the responsibilities for two separate programs.

In the morning, members of the Paul H. Hughey Post of the American Legion will go to schools in both the city and county to tell the boys and girls what Armistice Day is and what it means.

In the afternoon, there will be a Legion-sponsored program in the high school auditorium with R. L. Bingham, of the State Welfare Department as the principal speaker. This observance is to start at 1:15 P. M.

In the afternoon, the Legion Post will present an American flag to the Aeronautical Products Inc., in a ceremony scheduled now for 4 P. M. at the plant on South Fayette Street. A change in the time for this ceremony was made, Legion officers explained, so that the presentation could be made at the time of the change of shifts to reduce to the minimum any interruption in production of the vital precision parts the plant is turning out. It was emphasized that efforts were being made not only to make this an outstanding program but to have as large a public gathering as possible out for it.

The Legionnaires are to gather in the evening at Memorial Hall and march to the Court House lawn for their customary annual ceremonies there at 8 P. M. to pay tribute to their buddies who did not come back.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Post Auxiliary, the Disabled Veterans and Company C of the new State Guard are to meet at the Armory at 6 P. M. and march to the Court House lawn for their ceremonies at 6:15 P. M. There, Howard Burnett, the post commander, will read "Keep the Faith" and conduct the regular VFW Armistice Day ritual.

After the observance there, the four groups are to return to the Armory for a pot luck supper and an evening of entertainment.

2,000 Children Warned of Many Dangers

Some 2,000 "Official Safety Manuals" are being distributed to the school children of the city, pointing out the dangers attending bicycle riding.

The booklets are profusely illustrated showing how a great many serious accidents occur.

Inside the front cover are letters from City Manager Edwin Ducey and Captain Jess Ellis, of the police force, each giving a foreword on the matter of safe bicycle riding.

The booklet is expected to reduce much of the careless operation of bicycles in this city by bringing vividly to the attention of the hundreds of children who ride bicycles, the dangers that lurk on all sides.
